

Are You Trained and 'Ready' for an Emergency?

Emergency Preparedness Campaign ReadyOC Offers FREE Training Classes for Volunteers

Want to Help Orange County Get More Prepared?

More than 3.2 million people live in Orange County and less than 30 percent have done anything to prepare for an emergency. If you'd like to help increase this percentage and support your local community as a volunteer, here's your opportunity. Training classes will be held to teach volunteers how to best help their neighborhoods.

Training Class Curriculum:

Led by ReadyOC Steering Committee members, these one-hour long training sessions are designed to explain the ReadyOC campaign, help volunteers learn about local preparedness resources and spread the word about the "Promise to Prepare" initiative.

Training Dates and Locations:

ReadyOC is conducting two separate training sessions for your convenience. Training sessions are open to anyone age 18 and older and no advance reservation is needed. Contact us at readyorangecounty@gmail.com with questions.

Tuesday, August 31 from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.
 Dana Point City Hall (Council Chamber Room)
 33282 Golden Lantern Street, Dana Point
 Session Leader: Donna Boston, Orange County Emergency Management Bureau
 Session Leader: Brenda Emrick, Costa Mesa Fire Department

Thursday, September 2 from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.
 Santa Ana Police Department (Community Room)
 60 Civic Center Plaza, Santa Ana
 Session Leader: Captain Steve Snyder, Santa Ana Fire Department
 Session Leader: Ellen Lopez, Anaheim Fire Department

Free ReadyOC wristbands for all attendees!

About ReadyOC

ReadyOC is an online-based emergency preparedness campaign for Orange County with access to the tools and resources you need to better prepare for emergency situations.

